Dear Parent/Guardian,

It pleases me to inform you that several students made the "Principal's List" because of their 4th quarter grades (having a 3.0 GPA or higher). Also, many students received a "Perfect Attendance" award for the month of April. We want to encourage students and their families to continue working hard to finish the school year on a strong note.

Accompanied with this letter, is your son/daughter's progress report. This is not a report card with official grades. The grades that you see on the report are where your son/daughter are, academically, as of May 14. Please remind your son/daughter that they still have until June 16th to either keep their grades up or to get them up if they are low.

Here are some upcoming dates to keep in mind:

- Senior Awards Dinner: Friday, June 4th at 7pm, Casa Puertorriqueña
  - (For staff and graduating seniors only – dress to impress)
- Prom Night: Friday, June 11th at 7pm, Humboldt Park Field house
  - (For any interested Albizu Campos student – dress to impress)
- Last Day of School: Wednesday, June 16th
- Puerto Rican People's Day Parade: Saturday, June 19th at 2pm
  - (Division and Western and open to ALL!)
- Graduation: Tuesday, June 22nd at 10am, Humboldt Park Boathouse
  - (For community and family – first come first serve seating)

Please call or visit with any questions or concerns.
Sincerely,

Matthew Rodríguez
Director
